3.0 Location of nearest Minor Injuries Unit

Many people continue to go to A&E even though they could be treated just as professionally and often, quicker at a Minor Injuries Unit. These Units are for patients with less serious injuries such as sprains, cuts, grazes etc. No appointments are necessary and usually treatment times are quicker than at A&E Units.

Minor Injuries Unit can treat a wide variety of problems including:

- Cuts, grazes and lacerations
- Sprains and strains
- Fractures
- Bites and stings
- Infected wounds
- Minor head injuries
- Minor eye infections, foreign bodies and scratches

If there is any doubt whether an injury is minor and can be treated at a Minor Injuries Unit then contact NHS 111 and they can advise and direct the patient to the most appropriate place for care.
